From Huz. 7-2-06 put up herewith, it is seen that, owing to internal dissentions in the village between two rival parties headed by Halappa & karigappa, the affairs of the temple were being mismanaged and that consequently the temple was taken over under Govt management and the car festival of the temple was ordered to be conducted by the rival parties by turns.

It is now reported that Halappa died more than 3 years ago and that both parties have now fused into one. Ever since the death of Halappa, the car festival which ought to have been celebrated by his party was not conducted at all and karigappa petitioned to the Amildar that, if permitted, he would conduct the car festival of the other party also. The villagers have deposed on 9-10-12 that they have no objection to the car festival being conducted every year by karigappa without any party differences.
